At the third agricultural show in the Bathurst district held at O'Connell Plains in 1861 the first protest against a judge's decision was made.

"A ploughman called Joseph Goodacre (ideal name!) wrote to the "Free Press" complaining that the judges of the ploughing section had erred badly, and claiming to be supported in this view by several people, including some committeemen. Oddly enough, Goodacre's protest was directed not against the awarding of the first prize, which he did not dispute, but at the awarding of the second prize." No action was taken.
